CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE WELCOMES NEW MEMBERS

AT FORT MASON
CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

The At-Fort-Mason Capital Campaign is a fund-raising effort to complete ten major renovations projects within the historic piers and buildings of Fort Mason Center. To date, over $3 million of the Phase 1 goal of $4 million has been raised.

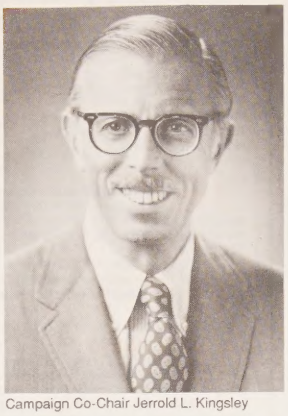
The At-Fort-Mason Capital Campaign Committee has recently been expanded in response to the continuing success of its fund-raising effort.

"We welcome these outstanding citizens to Fort Mason," said Jerrold L. Kingsley, Co-Chair of the Campaign. "Each of these new members brings expertise, leadership, and personal knowledge of the donor community, qualities that we are fortunate and grateful to have."

The eight civic leaders who have joined the Committee are Margy Boyd of the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art; George Doubleday, President, InnerAsia; James Gilleran, Peat Marwick Mitchell & Co.; Ridge Harlan, President, VeloBind, Inc.; Rudy Hurwich; Atherton Phleger, Brobeck Phleger and Harrison; Richard R. Draper, AT&T; and Alice Russell-Shapiro.

"I am especially pleased with this group of people," said Myron Du Bain, the Campaign's other Co-Chair. "It is most reassuring to have representatives of the corporate community such as James Gilleran and Richard Draper among the leaders on the Committee," he said.

The additions to the Campaign Committee come at a timely moment. The Campaign has nearly reached its Phase 1 goal of $4 million, and is now working to meet the challenge of raising its Phase 2 goal of $2 million. Kingsley remarked, "The many talents of the Committee are being brought to bear in this intensive volunteer effort to renovate Fort Mason. Committees have been established to concentrate activities within the corporate community, as well as with foundations and individuals."



Campaign Co-Chair Jerrold L. Kingsley

The At-Fort-Mason Capital Campaign Committee is composed of 24 community and business leaders, and is responsible for enlisting the aid of foundations, corporations and individuals in raising funds for the renovation of the historic piers and landmark buildings. The Fort Mason Foundation Board of Directors oversees the Campaign.

Other members of the Committee include Vice Chair Norman Scott, President, States Steamship Co.; William D. Evers, Chickering & Gregory; Anthony M. Frank, Chairman, First Nationwide Bank; Esther Fuller; Ruth S. Kadish; Sanford Lowengart, Loomis Sayles & Co.; Charlotte Mailliard; Blair C. Pascoe, Senior Vice President, Transamerica Corp.; Helen Barker Pascoe; Elizabeth Spencer Pfau, Hill & Co.; Brooks Walker, Jr., Chairman, United States Leasing International; Norman Wechsler, former Chairman, I. Magnin & Co.; and Osamu Yamada, Chairman, The Bank of California.

Ten major renovations projects are the focus of the fund-raising effort. For the 1.7 million visitors who come to Fort Mason annually, the renovations will enhance the functionality of this cultural center, while preserving its historic character. Fort Mason's exhibition spaces, Piers 2 and 3, are now undergoing initial renovations, as a result of the success of the Campaign to date. Pier 2 will become known as the Herbst Exhibition Hall, for conferences, exhibits, and special events for groups of up to 3,000 people. Pier 3, a much larger event space at 70,000 square feet, will be called the Festival Pavilion, and will host some of Fort Mason's most notable events, such as the annual Fall Antiques Show and the San Francisco Landscape Garden Show.

The Exhibition Hall on Pier 2 will provide 30,000 square feet of space for major events.

The Capital Campaign plan also calls for the creation of a 500-seat Bayfront Theater in the outer end of Pier 2, and a 200-seat World Music Showcase in Landmark Building C.

Other plans include the landscaping of the grounds with benches, sculpture, and directory signs, and further improvements in all of the Landmark Buildings. For more information about the At-Fort-Mason Capital Campaign, call 441-3400.

FMC UPDATE

THEATER AT FORT MASON

Hyena Cabaret presents its multimedia satiric theater production, Fear of Worms, in the Blue Bear School of Music's Marina Music Hall. By combining songs, film, puppets and skits, this group of performers creates a new theatrical genre taken from folk tales and modern myths. The production runs March 28 through April 12. For information, call 648-5191.

Hyena Cabaret presents Fear of Worms 3/28-4/12.

Magic Theatre continues its run of True Beauties, written and directed by Julie Herbert. In flashback sequences, the story of Cordelia Marie Pharr unfolds as she relives highlights of her youth, her years mothering her retarded daughter, her passionate love for her Cajun husband, and her love/hate relationship with her sister. Set in Louisiana, this is a beautiful story of a Southern woman's journey through life. Opening in March will be a revival of The Beard, by famed San Francisco poet/playwright Michael McClure. John Lion, who directed the play at the Magic in the early '70s, will again direct this controversial work which pits Jean Harlow against Billy the Kid in an erotic and subliminal battle of the sexes. True Beauties runs February 17 through March 29. The Beard runs March 24 through May 3. For information, call Magic Theatre, 441-8822.

Young Performers Theatre, Fort Mason's newest theater group, will present a revival of their popular production, Mother Goose Incorporated. Written by San Francisco's own Missy Saveri, author of over 25 children's shows, this takeoff casts Mother Goose as a booking agent with her fabulous collection of storybook characters as clients. The play runs February 20 through March 15. For information, call 346-5550.

Life On The Water will premiere Not For Real, a solo work by avant-mime artist Leonard Pitt in collaboration with actor/composer/writer Rinde Eckert. Both Pitt and Eckert are well known as founding members of George Coates Performance Works and as solo performance artists in their own rights. Not For Real is based upon Pitt's ongoing fascination with the mind-body split and its multicultural influences. In this work, he turns his mind inside out, taking the audience through a psychological landscape of comedy and drama. It will run from March 4 through 29 at Life On The Water. For more information, call 776-8999.

ENVIRONMENTAL NEWS

The Oceanic Society's San Francisco Bay Chapter presents its third "State of the Bay" Conference, with California Congressman George Miller as featured speaker. The conference will bring scientists, policy experts, government officials and environmentalists together with the public for a comprehensive overview of the Bay's ecosystem and an examination of its conservation needs. The speakers will specifically address the state of the Bay's water quality, freshwater inflow, wildlife habitats and fisheries, as well as examine the socioeconomic issues and the political realities affecting Bay-Delta decisions. The "State of the Bay" Conference will be held March 7 in the Golden Gate University Auditorium in San Francisco, from 9am to 5pm. Cost will be $25 with lunch provided. For information, call the Oceanic Society at 441-5970.

The Friends of the River Foundation will hold their fourth annual Spring Auction in the African Hall at the California Academy of Sciences in Golden Gate Park. This is a major environmental fund-raising event, with proceeds directly benefiting river preservation and wildlife protection efforts. There will be a great array of items donated by businesses and individuals from around the country, including vacations in Paris, Hawaii, and Mexico, a kayak and a canoe, river expeditions, a pair of mountain bikes, ski trips, artwork, books, and much more. This gala event will take place March 12 at 5pm. Tickets are $20 per person, $35 per couple, including cocktails and hors d'oeuvres. For information, call Friends of the River at 771-0400.

TIBET DAY

On March 8, the Bay Area Friends of Tibet will host a very special event at Fort Mason. Tibet Day is a celebration of Tibetan culture, and also commemorates the 28th anniversary of the Tibetan uprising which took place on March 10, 1959. In this daylong event, the public will be treated to a variety of entertainment, including guest celebrity appearances, dance and music performances, plus Tibetan crafts and food. Filmmaker Richard Cohn will be in attendance to show and discuss the making of Lord of the Dance, Destroyer of Illusion, a documentary film on Tibetan Buddhism filmed in the Everest region of Nepal. The event will also provide a forum for examining ecological issues facing Tibetan refugees and various appropriate technological projects being implemented in refugee camps. Hours will be 10am to 4pm; admission will be $2. For information, call the Bay Area Friends of Tibet at 268-2904.
